CAPDEPON ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

Served as Mayor For Two Terms, 1910-14—Present Justice of Peace

Mr. Leon B. Capdepon, locally well known in business and general circles, is formally announced in this issue of The Echo as a candidate for city commissioner, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, Saturday, October 3.

Mr. Capdepon needs no introduction at our hands to the public. He is well known and generally esteemed and is equally popular with all. He calls attention to a number of instances where he suggests remedy, and, if elected, he states, to bring about in his opinion, desired reform.

Mr. Capdepon has long been connected with the public service of this city, having served as mayor for two terms in the years 1910 and 1914. At present he is Justice of the Peace.

In a statement to The Echo he says:

As I have already made known my candidacy for Commissioner of the City of Bay St. Louis, I take this means to better acquaint the voters of the city with the measures and principles which I intend to work for and follow.

I sincerely believe in economy in government and as a test of this I advocate the reduction of commissioners' salaries from $200.00 per month to $125.00 per month. I believe that $125.00 per month would be adequate and sufficient for the amount of work required and would be comparable with the salaries paid in other cities operating under the same form of government.

I believe that the traffic laws should be better enforced to prevent the loss of life and injuries. I am strictly opposed to permitting an intoxicated person driving on our public streets.

I would inaugurate the formation of a Charity Fund to be supported by levies on the operation of Amusement devices, which would provide a much needed fund.

I favor homestead exemptions from taxes and believe that part of the revenue collected by the State Sales Tax should be distributed to the municipalities to substitute for the loss of revenue.

I advocate the payment of the Bonded Indebtedness of the city as they become due and would oppose any refinancing unless the city could save thereby, and would oppose the issuance of any new bonds, but am strictly in favor of improvements on the pay-as-you-go system of finance.

I am in favor of a living wage and full time employment for all City truck drivers and helpers.

I believe that taxes are too high at the present time and I will endeavor to continually lower the amount of taxes consistent with good government and good finance, and this would encourage the building up of our city by out-of-town people and with a larger number of tax payers the amount of taxes for each would be correspondingly smaller.

The voters of the City of Bay St. Louis as well as the voters in the other precincts in Beat Five have twice honored me by electing me as Justice of Peace, and I have deeply appreciated their loyal support, and have always striven to fairly, impartially and justly adjudicate all matters coming within the purview of my office. I therefore invite inspection and investigation of my record as a public officer, and would appreciate your careful consideration of my candidacy for the Democratic Nomination of Commissioner of the City of Bay St. Louis.

VISITOR SWIMS BAY.

Miss D. D. Lenoir, of Jackson, Miss., accomplished quite a feat last week, when she swam across the Bay of St. Louis from the Henderson Point side to the Bay St. Louis side. Miss Lenoir was accompanied on the swim by Mr. Bill Lizana, in a skiff. Speaking of the event Miss Lenoir said that it was easier than she had expected and hopes next summer to train for an attempt to swim to Ship Island, off Biloxi, and perhaps later, the channel.

EMPLOYMENT

The United States Employment service reports increased absorption of workers by industries but the American Federation of Labor estimates that 11,250,000 were unemployed in July.

Roosevelt is to open active campaign at Syracuse September 28.

STANISLAUS HAS TOUGH SCHEDULE

Coach 'Wop' Glover Putting Charges Thru Hard Practice Daily—First Game Sept. 25.

The St. Stanislaus Rockchaws under the mentorship of Coach Harry 'Wop' Glover are in practice session daily for the tough grind that they face in the gridiron warfare this season. A squad of 30 husky boys reported for practice three weeks previous, and since then they have been hard at work trying to fill in the gaps made by the loss of seven regulars.

Prospects of a better team than many in the past are extremely bright, and the team is filled with a grim determination to avenge previous defeats. The line will be a bit heavier than last season's, but the weight is solid, and will be tough to penetrate. With the loss of two fine backs, it appeared as if the backfield situation would be in a hopeless muddle, but several promising men have returned, and although not as heavy as last year, the backfield will be something to contend with.

The first game is to be played September 25th, under the lights with Kiln. The roster is as follows:

B. A. Hardey, L. Rogers, F. Bell, G. Del Rio, J. Sangasson, F. Fagan, R. Strong, V. Ivcevic, V. J. Gianelloni, E. Monti, A. Fix, E. Gibbens, J. Bryan, I. Defelice, J. Glover, D. Glover, C. J. Stockton, E. Melancion, A. Bancker, E. Adam, R. Torres, J. Folse, J. C. Strong, C. Cannon, D. Haggerty.

MONDAY IS SET AS TRIAL DATE

Oliver, Lamley and Others Indicted on Robbery Charges.

Mark Oliver and George Lamley, indicted with others for alleged robbery with firearms, of Joseph R. Scharrf, grocery store operator, on Saturday, September 5, are scheduled to be tried Monday of next week. A special venire was drawn Thursday of this week to select a jury.

In addition to Oliver and Lamley, defendants in the Scharrf case were Sam Montebano and James V. Glynn of New Orleans and Forrest Favre, unemployed resident of Bay St. Louis.

Charged With McDonald Robbery
The indictment against Oliver and Lamley in the McDonald case charged breaking and entering of the company's Bay St. Louis warehouse, and the theft of 6500 cartons of cigarettes, contained in 130 cases and valued at approximately $7000.

The five prisoners, held without bail, were removed from Hancock county courthouse at Bay St. Louis to the several widely separated Southern Mississippi jails in which they have been held since their arrest last week.

Circuit court convened Monday of this week when several other cases were held. Other cases on the docket will be heard about the middle of next week.

EASING

LIBRARY PERSONNEL MEETING

Held at Gulfport Sept. 16—Miss Louise Crawford, Librarian Due Home Shortly.

Since early in the summer, patrons of the Hancock County Free Library as well as the Literary personnel have been missing the brisk and smiling energy of the county librarian, Miss Louise Crawford. The Library has run smoothly without her through the summer; but to Miss Crawford's organization must be given a great deal of the credit for its doing so. She has been enjoying a well-earned vacation with her kin in England and has written enthusiastically of the pleasure it has given her, and the rest it has afforded. Now she is about to return. According to Miss Alexander, District Library Supervisor, Miss Crawford will be back at her desk or driving about the county visiting various branch libraries by October 1, planning wider and wider library service to the citizens of the county.

At a meeting of library personnel held in Gulfport on Wednesday, September 16, Miss Grace Keel, of the State WPA headquarters, conducted a class in the mending and binding of books. Hancock county was represented by Miss Virginia Chapman, librarian at Bay St. Louis, and her assistant, Miss Lucille Perre; Miss Emelda Bourgeois, NYA librarian at Waveland, and Miss Lavonia Bourgeois, NYA librarian at Edwardsville. So if the good old books you meant to give the Library but decided were too ragged are still in the closet under the stairs, find them and bring them in. They can be mended and provide entertainment for years to come.

So great has been the demand for Gone With the Wind, by Margaret Mitchell since Mrs. Landry's review of that book, Hancock county was procured another copy for the pay shelf. Other new books purchased are Aldous Huxley's Eyelens in Gaza and Sanfelice, by Vincent Sheehan.

From preliminary reports received at headquarters September 9th, the Mississippi Baptist Five Thousand Club, of which W. S. Allen, Pass Christian, and Mrs. G. C. Hodge, Biloxi, are chairmen for the Gulf Coast, is more than half completed, according to Frank E. Skilton, Blue Mountain, general chairman.

Candidate For Office Of Mayor City of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

H. J. (SON) COLSON
Striving to fill an almost life-long ambition, Henry J. (Son) Colson, of Bay St. Louis, has announced his intention of running for the office of mayor of the city.

Mr. Colson was born in Bay St. Louis 48 years ago and has been an active resident of this city all his life, always interested in its welfare and the well-being of its people. He is asking not only that a laudable ambition be fulfilled—that of being mayor and serving the city—but that he be given that opportunity of giving the city the benefit of an administration that he thinks will serve the city and its tax-payers to advantage.

STUDENTS INCREASE AT STANISLAUS

Both Boarders and Day Scholars are Increased in Numbers—Freshman Class is Divided In Two

The opening of the doors of St. Stanislaus College last week brought students into the historic institution in much greater numbers than any year since the depression. The increase was felt most in the Freshman class. As a consequence, two divisions had to be formed in order to conform to the rule of the Southern Association of Secondary Schools which forbids more than thirty pupils to a class.

The increase in boarders came principally from Louisiana, although Northern Mississippi contributed a nice quota. The new day scholars came principally from the coast area across the Bay.

The classes were organized at once and now everything is in full swing. At present there are 112 boarders but it is expected that this number may be brought up to 125 before the end of the month.

Wop Glover's football material has been practicing regularly, and it is hoped that a fairly good team will be put upon the new field.

The Band was very hard hit by the loss of eight of the best players of last year's championship aggregation. Brother Romuald will be hard put to replace them, but in his never-say-die spirit, he is starting at once to fill their places and the band will be heard at the opening game of the season, next Friday night.

With the increased numbers and good spirit which prevails among the students both new and old, the outlook for the year appears very good.

65 STUDENTS ENROLLED FRIDAY

At St. Augustine Seminary; 20 New Ecclesiastical Students For The High School

St. Augustine Seminary, Bay St. Louis, Miss., opened its new school year September 11, with an enrollment of 65 students.

St. Augustine's Seminary received a total of 20 new ecclesiastical students for the high school and college department. The enrollment at the seminary will be larger this year than ever before according to present indications. The high school and college will have an enrollment of 50 students, and the major Seminary will have 15 seminarians in Philosophy and Theology. Coming from about twenty different states, the students are taking a high school, college and Major Seminary course in preparation for the priesthood in the Society of the Divine Word. All the classes are conducted by fourteen priests and one lay teacher.

At the opening of the new semester a solemn high mass was celebrated in honor of the Holy Ghost by the Reverend Charles Reinelt, S. V. D. assisted by the Reverend Norbert Schuler, S. V. D., and the Reverend Francis Giallanza, S. V. D. The students sang the Gregorian Chant.

During the vacation period the major improvement to the Seminary was the erection of a new chapel, constructed of red brick. Services are already being held in the new chapel, but the dedication by the Most Reverend Richard O. Gerow, D. D., Bishop of Natchez, Miss., will be held September 30.

At the completion of the Scholastic year, 1936-37, the Most Reverend Bishop Gerow, will ordain two colored seminarians to the priesthood.

The Society was founded by the Rev. Arnold Janssen at Steyl, Holland. It is primarily a missionary congregation of priests and brothers who work side by side for the conversion of pagan peoples. The personnel of the Society according to the latest statistics has ten Bishops; 4 Prefects Apostolic; 1 Administrator; 1435 priests; 564 Scholastics (students in Philosophy and Theology); 468 Clerical Novices; 1633 Brothers; 328 Brother Novices; 124 Brother Postulants; 4047 high school and college students; and 192 Brother candidates. This gives a total of 8806 members. Upward of 100 seminarians of the Society are ordained to the priesthood every year.

TOPPING OF BRIDGE UNDERWAY

Work Started Early Part of Last Week—Will Be Big Improvement.

Work of topping the Hancock-Harrison bi-county bridge over the Bay of St. Louis, between Bay St. Louis and Henderson Point, was started last week and work is progressing rapidly.

In March of last year the Highway Department set aside the sum of $10,000 for spiking the decking of the bridge which became loose and caused quite a bit of noise which was acutely heard at night due to the heavy traffic over the bridge. This work was completed in comparatively short time. The boards were securely fastened and the rumbling noise caused by the loose timbers ceased.

The spiking of the decking was evidently a preparatory measure to the top surfacing being done at this time.

A force of men are now at work placing the top surfacing which is of asphalt of about 2-inch thickness and will when completed resemble an asphalt roadway. The topping adds greatly to the popular structure.

Our people are very proud of the bridge, knowing its original cost, its worth and value as a medium of convenience, and this latest improvement is accepted with more than ordinary acclaim.

TO CONTINUE

The Government's liberal spending for drought and work relief is expected to continue and, if necessary, funds will be drawn from other projects.

Federal operative service is sought by musical group.

DATES FIXED FOR HUNTING SEASON IN MISSISSIPPI

Quail Shooting Opens On Thanksgiving Day and Closes January 31

Opening and closing dates for the hunting season for various sections of Mississippi and the bag limits have been announced by the state fish and game commission in mimeographed notices sent out to game wardens and deputies throughout the state.

The statewide season for hunting quail opens on Thanksgiving Day, November 26, and closes on January 31. Twelve birds in one day is all that may be legally killed by the hunter and he must not have more than 24 in his possession at any one time.

The squirrel season differs in various sections of the state, opening in some counties earlier than in others. For instance, in Jackson and George counties the season does not open until November 1, while in Harrison, Hancock, Stone, Pearl River and other South Mississippi counties it opens a month earlier on October 1.

In all counties the closing date for the squirrel season is given as December 1. The daily bag limit is eight and sixteen is the limit that a hunter can have in his possession. The dove season in South Mississippi, including the Coast counties, opens on November 20 and continues to January 31. The daily bag limit and possession limit is 20. Doves may be shot during this open season only between 7 o'clock in the forenoon till sunset.

The hunting season for ducks, geese and brant runs from Thanksgiving Day to Christmas Day, but the hunting hours are limited between 7 and 4 o'clock. The daily bag limit on ducks is in the aggregate of all kinds, Woodcock, canvas-back, redhead, ruddy and buffhead ducks must not be killed at all. The daily bag limit on geese is 4.

A hunter is allowed to kill one wild turkey gobbler per season during the first 20 days of the month taken or molested.

Rabbits may be hunted with sticks and dogs by licensed hunters throughout the year. The season for hunting them with gun opens on November 20 and closes on January 31 and the bag limit is 10.

Among the birds for which there is no open season are pheasants, coot, snipe, woodcock and rails.

Another important regulation of the state game commission is that hunters are not permitted to use a shotgun larger than 10-gauge and capable of carrying more than three shells at one time. This means, it was pointed out, that all automatics and pump guns must be plugged with a plug through the loading end. All hunters must have a hunting license, either county or state.

ROADS MAY USE BY-PRODUCT OF SOUTHERN PINE

New Chemical Process Recovers Natural Cement of Tree and Converts It Into Effective, Low-Cost Binder

The Southern Pine and hardwood industry has unlimited prospects for development through the wide spread use of certain wood derivatives for improving unpaved roads and streets, according to W. G. Drummond of the Rainer Pulp and Paper Company of Seattle and New York City, following his recent survey of the forest resources of the states of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Eastern Texas and Arkansas.

Wood Chemistry has found a new process for the recovery of the natural cement of the tree from the by-products of rayon pulp manufacture declares Drummond, who observes that certain pulp mills are now using this derivative to produce a low-cost binder, which is particularly adapted to treatment of clay-gravel road soils to form smooth-riding, dustless stabilized roadways.

British Columbia and the states of Washington, New Jersey and Idaho have been using the product, raylig, extensively during the last summer. It has been tried satisfactorily and at low cost on approximately 750 miles of roadway.

"The new material is not a substitute for cement and bituminous paving materials, but is a stabilizer or building agent for a material which will improve the dirt roads of America, control dust and mud and at the same time materially reduce exorbitant maintenance costs," he concludes.

The Mississippi Supreme Court opened its fall session last Monday, September 14, and the first days' session was marked by memorial services for members of the state bar, who have died during the past year, which ceremonies were in charge of the State Bar Association.

MEETING OF SCOUT MASTERS

French's Tavern is Scene of Gathering—Fourteen in Attendance—Plans Formulated.

September meeting of Boy Scout Masters of this district was held at French's Tavern, Henderson Point, Friday night, September 11, 1936.

Fourteen members were present, representing both Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian troops.

After serving of supper, talks were made by scout masters of the different troops, namely Fred Fayard, reported on the recent outing and camping trip of troop 217 of Bay St. Louis in which about 25 boys participated.

Scout Master Jones, reported that during most of the summer many boys of his troop were away on vacation.

Frank Wittman of troop 216 of Pass Christian, reported that the boys of his troop, specialized in making model boats and airplanes during vacation time. One particular plane made by the boys remained aloft for 1 1/2 minutes. Thru the assistance of the Rotary Club and the city council the boys had worked on the Pletus property, converting it into a city park. Jokingly the boys said they were afraid at times they were mistaken for P. W. A. workers.

Mr. Jim Terrell of Pass Christian acted as Master of Ceremonies and Clyde Surgi, field representative of the New Orleans area, made an interesting talk. He announced that a District Rally would be held at Gulfport, Tuesday, November 10, at which time the following events would be participated in by scout troops:

Woodchopping, compass relay, archery, signalling, twenty knot contest, rope splicing, staff throwing, fire by friction, fire by flint or steel, lariat spinning, tower building, knot tying relay, and nature event. "The Spirit of the Boy Scout Oath and law would prevail throughout the Camporee."

Announcement was also made that a Court of Honor would be held on October 7th, at 7:30 P. M. Pass Christian. Chas Hursey of Pass Christian would enjoy the honor of being the only Eagle Scout present. Mr. Jim Terrell will be chairman of the Court of Honor, assisted by boys of his troop. The recently organized Pass Christian High School Band of Pass Christian would furnish music for the occasion.

The program will be as follows: Presentation of Colors. Repeating Scout Oath. Band Selection.

Introductions by Chairman.

Introduction of Speaker.

Awarding of Badges.

First aid and display of model boats by Troop 216.

OUR SPLENDID SCHOOLS.

WITH opening of the schools of this city, this week, larger enrollments than ever are registered. Competent and experienced teachers, qualified to the fullest required provisions, have been secured, assuring a successful school year.

No city of this size has the facilities, both public and private, here offered. Primary, grammar and high school grades, affiliated with the nation's higher schools from a combination that leaves nothing more to be desired.

Besides the city high school there are two private institutions, namely, St. Stanislaus College and St. Joseph's Academy, all three offering all branches of learning through accredited institutions. One may study the various sciences, vocational and academic branches. Our youth are exceptionally fortunate in the fact they are enabled to embrace unusual opportunity for study and learning, for cultural and physical development and to be successful in their quest for accomplishment.

We would ask, and teachers encourage the idea, that patrons visit the schools oftener, take more interest in the doings and welfare of our institutions. Let us get better acquainted with our schools and teachers. It will mean for a better and more constructive understanding.

Seven hundred persons, now living, will be dead in seven days as a result of highway accidents.

SPORTS IN SEASON.

WITH the closing of the soft ball season last week, local fans are looking forward to an enthusiastic football season.

Teams representing the high school and college have been practicing daily for the first games scheduled for the latter part of the month. Coaches are enthusiastic and players are on edge for the final whistle.

The St. Stanislaus football field has been greatly improved. Lights readjusted, field put in excellent condition and everything in readiness for the first game on September 25th.

Night games will be more popular than ever and larger crowds are expected. The local College band will furnish music for each game.

Sportsmen of this section are awaiting the opening of the hunting season. Guns are being cleaned and fields being located for the first hunt.

Fishing which is an all-year-round pastime has its followers. Streams and outside waters are in excellent condition and large catches are frequent.

There is no other section in the country that offers any more than the Gulf Coast section to sportsmen. Especially at this time of the year fishing, golf, boating and other out-door sports are at their height.

Going to church may not guarantee that a man is a saint but staying away from church doesn't guarantee much, if anything.

WASHINGTON ON LABOR DAY.

ABOUT 115 thousand visitors entered Washington on Labor Day, and more than 100,000 residents of the capital city left it to find pleasure elsewhere, a circumstance tending to prove truth of the old saying one man's meat is another man's poison. Having fun on Labor Day cost 304 lives throughout the country. Washington had no fatality to report. Those who left town seem to have had the worst of it, in that they passed from an area of comparative safety into a war zone where reckless driving, rocking the boat and the like were in order. Washington is a fairly secure place saving for congressmen, who have to run the chance of being defeated at the polls.

ANOTHER RECORD.

BAY ST. LOUIS with its thousands of visitors during the summer months besides its local residents who enjoy the wonderful bathing of this section, did not have one death by drowning this season.

This is quite a record. Something to be proud of. Carefulness on the part of swimmers no doubt was responsible for this fact.

If the practices of the "don'ts" regarding swimming are more adhered to there would be less drownings in all parts of the country. Let's keep up the good work.

Taking care of the boys and girls, growing up in this community, is the biggest task that faces Hancock County adults.

WHY SHOULDN'T IT?

THE American Psychological Association has been told that a baby, three years old, had some Greek poetry read to him and that, after five years, when the boy was eight, without hearing them in the meantime, showed some impressions of the Greek poems read to him.

Now, if we have made the matter clear, we suggest that there is nothing improbable in the story. Almost any modern poetry would make an impression upon a trusting and innocent baby; but when the verse is rendered into his incomprehending ears in the ancient Greek language, why shouldn't it make an impression?

PROMISE YOURSELF.

CERTAINLY we do not wish to bore our readers with diatribes against the killing of so many American citizens on the highways of the land but it is a serious matter when nearly three thousand citizens bite the dust every month in automobile accidents.

The number of those injured is appalling. The economic loss alone justifies a campaign to reduce the accidents and save life and limbs.

There is much that the average man or woman can do in this drive for safety. No one has to wait on his neighbor. You can make up your mind today that, hereafter, you will drive more carefully. Others can do the same. The cumulative effort will be tremendous even if there is no organization, no publicity and no boasting.

We hope that at least one reader of this article will decide immediately to take the pledge of the safe driver. If you are the one, you needn't bother about advertising it to the world. Just remember your promise to yourself when you drive your automobile.

Start off with the first thought in mind that with the opening of schools there are thousands of children who are in danger daily, while going and coming home from school. Be careful. Watch out for the innocent child who is not quite old enough to sense real danger. Just a little more care on your part may save a human life which might be snuffed out through carelessness on the part of the automobile driver.

IF FIRE STRIKES.

WHEN fire strikes, be calm, if you value your life. That sage advice is given by "Safeguarding America Against Fire."

Should your clothing become ignited, drop to the floor and roll into a rug or blanket. That will cut off the supply of oxygen and smother the flames. Thousands of people, insane with panic, have run, thus fanning the blaze—at the cost of their lives.

If you're in a public building when the fire alarm sounds, remember the old adage: "Walk, don't run, to the nearest exit." A legion of lives have been unnecessarily sacrificed to panic-stricken mobs in theatres, hotels and similar buildings.

If you awaken at night and smell smoke, don't open the door. That is vital—to open the door may permit super-heated air and fumes to enter and smother you. First place your hand on the door to see if it feels hot. If it is cool, open it very slightly, with your face averted. If you feel "fire-pressure" against it, close it at once and seek another means of exit.

Even as 90 per cent of fires can be prevented through the exercise of simple precautions, so can ninety per cent of the lives now lost in fires be saved—if we don't get excited. Knowledge of a few rudimentary facts, such as those given above, plus presence of mind, makes the best life saver of all.

Fire may break out in your home, your place of business, in a building or theater you are in, at any time. When it does, keep calm, think, and then act.

Getting down to work is often harder than doing the job.

NOT GUARANTEED BY US.

THE All-American Astrologers' convention was recently attended by some hundreds of star-gazers and students of the celestial firmament.

As usual they come forth with some predictions, including: (1) the average citizen is going to fare well, (2) the economic condition of the country is good, (3) there will be a boom in real estate, (4) there will be no recurrence of the drought and (5) Roosevelt's re-election.

We chronicle these items in order that our readers may know what the stars say, according to the professing students of their messages. We do not guarantee them and, in fact, despite the claim that astrology is on a scientific basis, prefer to put our money, if and when, upon some other judgment than that based on astrological dope.

WHERE HAS THE 'BONUS' GONE?

ABOUT seventy per cent of the soldiers' bonus bonds had been presented for redemption as September began, meaning that about a billion and a quarter dollars had passed into the hands of the men who served the country during the World War.

What part has this sum of money played in keeping business moving during the summer? Nobody knows, because nobody can tell how the veterans spent the money, or even if they spent it at all. Some may have gone into savings, some on past indebtedness and some, as many assert, into new automobiles.

Without accurate information everybody is entitled to a private theory as to where the "bonus" money went.

Rains of the past week, not always cherished, have done much good. They were needed. Weather here has been cool which has been a relief from the heat. Fall weather will soon be at hand.

SUMMER SEASON NEARS END.

BAY ST. LOUIS and the balance of the Gulf Coast has had its share of summer visitors and transients and tourists in apparently numberless quantity. With the passing of Labor Day, usually the dividing point of the season, many summer residents have returned to their homes, closing their summer villas.

With the Short Cut bringing the Gulf Coast much closer to New Orleans, more people than ever will return frequently for week-ends, during the winter months.

The past week end was an indication of this fact, for as usual thousands of automobiles journeyed hither. The Gulf Coast is a favorite with New Orleans people and no opportunity is overlooked for a visit to our shores.

MISSISSIPPI LEADS THE NATION.

(West-Point Times Leader)

THERE is less unemployment in Mississippi now than in any other State in the Nation, and survey, just completed by the New York Sun shows that the industries of the State are now actually carrying more men on their payrolls than they did in 1929.

No other State in the Union can make such a showing.

It will be said that Mississippi is not an industrial State and that these figures, therefore, mean little.

All right, then we'll dismiss the industrial phase, so far as Mississippi is concerned, and view the situation strictly from an agricultural standpoint.

Government estimates recently released indicate that Mississippi will lead the South in cotton production. Texas will produce more bales, because Texas is a larger State, but the yield per acre will fall far below the Mississippi average.

Mississippi has the best corn crop in ten years.

The hay yield will be better than average.

Milk production has increased and butterfat prices are higher than since 1928.

A $2,000,000 road paving program is in progress, giving remunerative employment to thousands of men.

Ten new garment factories, all established during the past two years, are giving employment to more than 6,000 persons.

Our banks are bulging with money, debts have been reduced, and retail sales have increased 20 to 30 per cent in the past year.

Confidence has been completely

BILLBOARDS AGAIN.

(Jackson Daily News)

THE State Advertising Commission is still getting some rather stiff censure from the press of the state for its tentative decision to put up billboards, 17 in number, at points where principal highways enter the state.

The state press, at its last convention, pledged itself to donate one million dollars in free advertising of Mississippi's material resources within the next year. That pledge, in reality, didn't mean much, for the press annually gives more than a million dollars worth of free advertising to the state each year—advertising, in fact, of the kind that cannot be bought with money. The editors give it gladly.

However, it does make some publishers hot under the collar when they think about any portion of a $100,000 legislative appropriation being spent on billboards. They regard them as nuisances, no matter where they are placed.

Also, billboards on highways are a menace to traffic.

Putting up gaudy billboards to let the tourist know he is now in Mississippi is a doubtful way to use public funds.

Let the hastening tourist pause somewhere and find out where he is—or glance at his road map occasionally.

ly restored in Mississippi, and we are facing the future with Courage and Faith and a unanimity of purpose which is certain to keep this great and glorious State in the vanguard of progress.

It is great to be a Mississippian.

A regular meeting of the Harrison county farm debt adjustment committee will be held at the R. A. office in Gulfport at 3 p. m., Thursday, September 24, it was announced today by W. T. Moore, chairman of the body.

Services of the committee are available without cost to the farmers of this county. Further details can be secured by contacting the chairman of the committee or the county Resettlement supervisor.

LABOR'S STRENGTH

As the American Federation of Labor seems about to divide a great struggle over craft and industrial unions, it is estimated that it has 3,400,000 members. This is short of the 4,075,000 it boasted in 1920 but far ahead of the 2,140,000 to which it dropped in 1933. It is generally assumed that the Lewis faction will have something of a free hand in the mass production industries and that both sides will seek to avoid conflict as far as possible.

"THESE THREE" HAS THREE GREAT STARS IN NEW SCREEN DRAMA

Picture to Be At A. & G. Theater This Sunday And Monday

"These Three," Samuel Goldwyn's powerful new screen drama, brings Miriam Hopkins, Merle Oberon and Joel McCrea to the A. & G. Theater for two days, Sunday and Monday, September 20-21.

The most talked-about story of the year, this Lillian Hellman screen play depicts how a whispering campaign growing out of child's malicious lie nearly wrecked the lives of three innocent people.

The drama is laid in a small girls' school run by two young college women, Martha Dobie (Miriam Hopkins) and Karen Wright (Merle Oberon). Both fall in love with Joseph Cardin, a young local doctor (Joel McCrea), but Martha, seeing that he loves Karen, conceals her affection.

Mary Tilford, the school's problem child, resenting punishment for wrong doing, runs away from school, concocting a vicious lie involving the three adults as her reason. As a result Martha, Karen and Joe become the center of an ugly scandal. The school is lost and the romance is broken.

The situation seems desperate until an unexpected turn of events brings the truth to light and the story ends happily.

Twelve-year-old Bonita Granville is cast as the trouble-making child, and others prominent in the cast are Catherine Doucet, Alma Kruger, Marcia Mae Jones, Carmencita Johnson and Walter Brennan.

William Wyler directed "These Three." The photography is by Gregg Toland. The costumes were designed by Omar Kiam and the sets by Richard Day. The picture is released through United Artists.

At the request of one of the circuit clerks of the State, the Secretary of State addressed an inquiry to the Attorney General, requesting his opinion on whether, under the provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act of 1935 it is necessary for electors to present their poll tax receipts or certificates of exemption from the payment of poll tax in applying to vote in general or special elections of the State, counties or municipalities.

In reply, the Attorney General gave his opinion as follows: "I advise that the Corrupt Practices Act applies only to primary elections. The provisions of said act do not apply to any special or general election."

Receipts from collections of various departments and from revenue sources, and which are deposited in the general fund of the State treasury for the month of August, produced a healthy increase in the cash balance of the general fund, according to a statement issued by Carl N. Craig, state auditor of public accounts. Using round numbers, and which are approximately correct, the total receipts during August amounted to $1,287,000. Warrants issued against the general fund during the month amounted to $462,000.00, leaving a net increase to the general fund for the month, amounting to $825,000.00, which added to the cash balance of this fund for the previous month, left a cash balance of $2,141,000.00, as shown by Auditor Craig's books. The chief sources of receipts were ad valorem taxes, insurance department collections, kerosene and fuel oil tax, land office collections, land revenue, penitentiary, state privilege taxes, amusement tax, beer and wine tax, franchise tax, income tax, sales tax, tobacco tax and state-wide privilege tax. The heaviest source of receipts were the sales tax, producing over a half-million dollars, with the franchise and tobacco tax, with $190,000.00 and $140,000.00 respectively.

The joint legislative committee, designated by the House and Senate at the expiration of the 1936 session of the legislature, and charged with the investigation of alleged invasions of the tax on gasoline and abuses of the gasoline refunding law, will make its report to the extraordinary session of the legislature this week. Senate Bill No. 545, Laws of 1936, provides that this be done. The committee has been very active in its work and with the result of their investigations and the reform program inaugurated by the state, those who are familiar with the matter feel that the state is expected to collect some 2 1/2 or 3 million dollars more per year than in the past, and that the gasoline refunds will be reduced approximately $600,000.00.

In his proclamation calling an extraordinary session of the legislature Governor Hugh White designated the following subjects to be considered at said session, which is now convening at Jackson: "The balancing of agriculture with industry by creation of necessary state and other agencies to effectuate the program; authorization of cooperation between these agencies and the several counties, municipal corporations and other taxing districts of this state in carrying out the program; the appropriation of state funds necessary for said program; and other matters that may be submitted by the Governor for consideration during said extraordinary session."

In the extraordinary session of the legislature at Jackson there are three new members in the lower house. They are: Mrs. Horace Stansel of Ruleville, elected several months ago from Sunflower county to succeed her late husband, Horace S. Stansel; W. E. Garland of Crystal Springs, elected in Copiah county to succeed former Representative Jack Sullivan; and former Senator Earl Richardson of Philadelphia, elected from Neshoba county, to succeed Dr. J. S. Hickman, who resigned at the close of last session to accept the superintendency of the East Mississippi Hospital for the Insane at Meridian.

MRS. RALPH ROSS AND FAMILY RETURN TO NEW ORLEANS HOME.

Mrs. Ralph Ross with her interesting family has returned to her home in New Orleans after spending the summer at her home at Inn-by-the-Sea. By her numerous charities and kind deeds Mrs. Ross is known as the good angel of the Coast.

Her life outside of her devotion to her immediate family is given wholly to spreading sunshine and giving material assistance to the aged, infirm, afflicted and suffering humanity.

To those in bereavement she gives generously her heart's sympathy, and with words of tender encouragement seeks to lead them on gently until they can say, "Thy Will Be Done."

She will be greatly missed on the Coast, but she will continue her good works in New Orleans.

JOINT BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR TWO LOCAL YOUNG MEN.

An outstanding event of the week was the surprise joint birthday celebration tendered Rene de Montluzin, Jr., and C. J. Gordon by the L'Ensemble Charming Orchestra Club of which they are members. It was a complete surprise when they entered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Goldman in Second street to find the home brilliantly illuminated and the practice room a riot of beautiful, artistic and unique decoration. The work of Mrs. Katherine Thomas and Mrs. Goldman, Mrs. Thomas is thoroughly artistic in all her ideas. She had prepared a gift for the hostess and each member of the club, which she presented in her own irresistible way and with a witty and appropriate speech. The birthday cake was made by Mrs. Roland Weston. Toasts were drunk to the honorees in sparkling champagne.

During the evening the following program was rendered by the orchestra:

1. Moonlight Sonata (Beethoven).
2. Famous Waltz (Brahms).

Forestry in Mississippi Means Great Deal to Citizens of State

The Rangers Office, Gulfport—(Special)—Forestry in Mississippi, according to Robert Fechner, director of emergency conservation work, means great deal to the citizenship of the state. According to information furnished from his office, there have been planted in Mississippi in the past three years thirty two and one half millions trees. This has been made necessary through destructive logging operations of two or three decades ago coupled with constant annual burnings of old timberlands.

People along the Gulf Coast are of necessity interested in the reforestation of these burned over areas. The plan being fostered by the Federal government for reforestation, controlled cutting, and perpetual income from its forests means an increased perpetual and dependable income for the Gulf Coast.

Practically the entire Mississippi Gulfcoast country is bordered on the north by units of the Mississippi national forests. Involved in these forests is one tenth of the area of the state.

Headquarters of the Biloxi Unit of the DeSoto National Forest are located in Gulfport. At Brooklyn is located the second largest pine seedling nursery in America. 35,000-000 young seedlings are being developed there now for plantings during the coming winter. Planting of these seedlings is scheduled to begin about November 15 of this year.

This work involving better than 4000 men will bring some prosperity coastward this fall and winter.
